“Christ in the Psalms”

Summary of Hallelujah, He Reigns Forever and Ever

Psalm 110

Wayne Shelton

God’s Son, is the ‘Priestly King enthroned forever.’ Thus says Psalm 110, the most quoted Psalm in the New Testament. Following the Fall, it was plainly visible that humanity needed to be rescued. Someone was required to do what we could not do for ourselves: defeat the love of self and restore the love of God in our hearts. The writer to the Hebrews, quoting Psalm 110, tells us that because Jesus is the Priestly King forever, “he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them” (Heb. 7:25).
