“Minor Prophets: Eternal Questions”
Summary of ‘The Message of Zechariah: Does God Give Second Chances?’
Zechariah
Chad Montoya

Zechariah is the longest Minor Prophet. Yet he is also the most obscure minor prophet. Old Testament professor Douglas Stuart has said that most people find it “an especially difficult read, even for a prophetic book.” Zechariah began prophesying at the same time as Haggai – in 520 B.C. Like Haggai, he exhorted the Jews who had returned from exile in Babylon to Jerusalem to get on with rebuilding the temple of the Lord. Through a series of eight visions, two sermons, and two oracles, God used Zechariah to tell God’s people that they would have a second chance! God will give the people a second chance through his rule, his Word, and most especially through his Son.
